LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE. P. M. Wilson, of Warren.

In urging the nomination of Peter M. Wilson, of Warren, for the office of Superintendent of Public Instruc tion, I desire to suggest to the delegates three reasons: 1. His qualifications are confessed-ly inferior to no man in North Caroina. Educated at Bingham's and our State University, and afterwards graduating as a Master of Arts with listinguished honors at the University of Edinburgh. Scotland, and upon his return to the United States engaging in the business of teaching under Prof. Holcombe, of Virginia, his opportunities for acquiring the best educational methods have been unsurpassed, and he has wisely improved them.

2. The county of Warren has had no place upon the State ticket since reconstruction. Her people, in the face of an enormous colored majority in county and judicial and congressional districts, have been ever true, and with the possible exception of Caswell, there are fewer white Republicans within its borders than any county in the State. They deserve recognition-they will appreciate it.

3. The brunt of every battle against radicalism fought in North Carolina since 1863 has been borne by the young men, and the Convention should see to it that some representative young man-one, if no moreshould be placed upon the ticket.

Mr. Wilson is twenty-eight years of age, and is a North Carolinian who will do honor to the State and himself. His nomination will be warmly seconded around many a fireside in all parts of the State.

A CARD.

The mention of my name recently in the public prints in connection with the office of Supt. Public Instruction was without my seeking, al-though I am grateful for any kind expressions indulged. I have never been a candidate for any political office, although editing newspapers in many heated canvasses and with my pen assisting others to win. I am not now a candidate, as I have received no special indications that the State needs my services. Blessed with a due share of that sort of disinterested patriotism that does not despise the sweet emoluments of place, am none the less a partial victim of that exploded political tenet of the past, that the office, or the people, if you prefer, should seek the man.

London Chairman of the District Executive Committee called the Convention to order in a speech brief and to the point and brimful of the animated zeal and fervent eloquence of a true party orator.

HIS SPEECH.

Mr. London said: Gentlemen:-It has again become my pleasant duty, as Chairman of the District Executive Committee, to call together a Convention of the Democratic party of this the Metropolitan District. When last we met in Couvention assembled our hopes of a successful canvass were not very encouraging, for at the preceding election our candidate had been defeated by over 700 majority, but in nowise daunted by that reverse you girded up your loins for a mighty effort, and entrusting your banner to the gallant Davis, went forth to battle and to victory. The adverse majority of 700 was blotted out as a foul stain, and by a majority of over 1,600 the freemen of this district declared for Joe. Davis and against the Civil Right. Bill. I congratulate you on the great and glorious victory which then rewarded your efforts, and if we are only true to ourselves and our country, a like success will again crown your labors, and in November next the welkin will ring with your shouts of victory. Mr. London then appointed Mr. Calviu E. Parish of Hillsboro as temporary Chairman of the Convention and T. C. Evans of Raleigh temporary Secretary until a permanent

SPEECH OF MR. PARISH.

On taking the chair, Mr. Parish Gentlemen of the Metropolitan District: I congratulate you upon this auspicious occasion and am proud to recognize so large and intelligent a number of my countrymen present. It is a sure indication of firmness and fidelity and glorious success. We bave met to-day to present to the people of this district a candidate to represent them in the lower House of the American Congress, and in doing so we trust that harmony and good feeling will prevail, and that no discordant element may be allowed to enter our ranks. The time has now come when a long suffering people must learn to lay aside personal prejudice and personal favoritism; the State can no longer suffer defeat; sixteen years of Radical rule in North Carolina has well nigh wrought ruin upon her people. Our du y here to day is simple but important: We expect to resent a gentleman as a candidate for Congress, whose name is a synonym for truth and virtue and bonor. and in November next we intend to elect him by a majority of more than

1,620. I now call the Convention to Mr. J. A. Womack, of Chatham, moved that a committee of one from each county in the district be appointed to form a permanent organization. Adopted. The Chair appointed the committee and after a few minutes retirement Capt. Sam T. Williams as Chairman of the committee reported the following permanent organization: For President-C. M. Cooke, of

Franklin. For vice Presidents - Thomas Webb, of Orange, Joseph A. Haywood, of Wake, Dr. J. W. Vick, of Johnson, T. B. Venable, of Granville, Dr. R. K. Smith, of Chatham, Jas. S. Battle, of Nash, W. S. Mallory, of Franklin. Secretaries-T. C. Evans, Wake, and W. A. Davis, Granville,

Assistant Secretaries-The representatives of the Democratic newspapers in the district. Previous to this report on organization and during the retirement of the committee there were cries over the hall for "Lewis." "Fuller," "Heck," "London, "Venable," "Green," "Cook," "Fowle," "Cox," "Pat Winston," "Wilson," and "Willis Jenkins," but not a gentleman responded. There was a cry for "Thomas," and Mr. Thomas, a worthy and hard fisted farmer of Franklin county

In Vallumbrosa."

THE re-nomination of Hon. W. M. Robbins and General A. M. Scales, was no surprise to the country. They were entitled to this recognition of their valuable services in the field and upon the floor of Congress. They are able and active members, and have made fine records at Washington, at the same time deepening and strengthening their hold upon the affections and esteem of their respective constituencies. Their reelection is sure. And thus we can count on five Democratic congressmen next November-Waddell, Steele, Robbins, Scales and Davis.

ALL THAT IS NECESSARY.

Tne Convention which assembles in Metropolitan Hall to-day is perhaps the most important of all the Democratic Conventions which have been held in North Carolina since the war. In 1868 it was not in the power of the Democratic Convention to do much one way or the other, as the sword was the arbiter of the day. The Convention of 1872 had to deal with none but the enemy. The party was united and strong. The action of the Convention of 1876 will shape the destinies of the State for a long time to come. If it places in the field a ticket which we can elect, the State is secured to us for an indefinite period, and we shall see dawning upon us that era of good government which fruits of bad government. Bat if the Convention acts unwisely, and defeat is the result in the November elections, we will see not only a Radical Executive Department, but in all probability a Republican House of Representatives next winter, to say nothing of the effect of such defeat upon the National canvass. Carolina. Of vast consequence is it, then, that the Convention should to-day perform wisely and well its appointed work. Of especial consequence is it to the eastern section of our State, where the evils of black dominion are felt in all their horrors. The hopes of those people hang in anxious suspense upon the doings of this body.

All that is necessary to lay the foundations for a complete victory in November is the nomination of men who combine the greatest elements of success. To do this, delegates must sink out of sight personal favoritism and personal prejudices, and, to use the language of one of the foremost among our eastern cotemporaries, "should meet as a band of brothers, imbued with one spirit and one hope, ready and anxioos to make all needful sacrifices upon the altar of patriotism in orler to secure unity and harmony first, and afterwards, victory." If the divisions which are threatening | Republican party. the party can be healed, the factions made to harmonize, and the wool party united under the leadership of a bold, skilful, enthusiastic, elo-

The re-nomination of Mr. Davis to represent this District in Congress is a well-deserved compliment to this gentleman. His course in the House of Representatives for the past two years has met with general approval among his constituents. We know of no vote, nor word, nor action of his at Washington that we can find fault with. His record is pure. And the question comes, can we elect him? That can hardly be a question if the State Convention to-day gives the proper shape to the campaign.

It is to be considered too, what action will Mr. Turner take in regard to Mr. Davis? And if he does anything against him, how much effect will it have?

But, leaving out of view all speculations as to the result, &c, our duty is to labor with a lour might to secure Mr. Davis' triumph at the polls. And we must go at it with that determination to win, which is in itself half the battle.

DEMOCRATS will be rejoiced to know that Speaker Kerr has been triumphantly vindicated from the Harney charges. The Republicans as well as Democrats, in Congress, rose to their feet to do honor to the man's honesty. So, our party can make the proud boast, that the only Congressman who has been charged with rascality and clearly acquitted, is one of the faithful. The political Diogenes of America can now put out his lantern. There is one honest man, at least, in Washington.

"Gop giving me health and strength, full and co-oplete restitution shall be made. To that object, over and above every other, the remnant of my life shall be devoted." So says Col. S. D. Pool. If Republican defaulters would do likewise, half the officers of the Government would go at once to

IF THE sun had taken Mr. Blaine's life, as it came very near doing, people would have said "the sun's a thief." Would it Lot have looked like retribution, if the sun had so robbed the Republican party of its favorite, after the Republican party had robbed the nation?

SHALL we attack the Republican party this fall in solid column, or with scattering detachments?

THE ASPIRANTS.

To-day as the clans gather in from the mountains and from the seaboards, and the historic counties of the centre, each brings with it a favorite son, whom the clansmen desire to see honored. His particular claims are to be shown; his virtues set forth in bright array; his gallant deeds told over; his patriotic services recounted: and all that is good in him emblazoned before the eyes of the Convention in the most glaring colors.

This is all right. It is in the regular order of things. Politics would come to a stand-still, and elections go by default, if there were not an abudance of "favorite sons" to stir the hearts of the people, and awake their enthusiasm.

A brilliant host of names will be presented for the various positions.

There will be Zebulon B. Vance, the most popular man in North Carolina; a man of exalted genius, commanding eloquence, and a patriotism that has never yet flashed in the pan. There will be ex-Gov. Reid, a pure patriot, and one who has highest honors the people have to bestow. There will be Gen. Wm. R. Cox, a general favorite; Robinson, a leader of the mountain men; theable and eloquent Fowle; the elegant and accomplished McGehee; the gallant Gilmer; the brilliant Gales; the astute and skilful Manning; the learned William N. H. Smith; Hcn. C. C. Cla: k; Hon. Thos. J. Jarvis; and Allen, Speight, Kenan, Gilliam, Fuller, Walker, Bennett, Conigland; Speed. Womack, and Engelhard; Worth and Williams; Wiley, Carr, Cobb. Dawson, McMillan, Kingsbury, Wiiliams, Litchford, and others, whom we caunot for lack of space, mention now. Besides these, there are numbers who are held back-tied out in the thicket, as it were, to be tro'ted into the arena, when the occasion offers; and who have not been mentioned in the newspapers. To select the most available candidates from all this array of excellent men, is both a difficult and delicate undertaking. But one rule should govern in this work-that is, to pick out the strongest men: those who are likely to get the most votes. To do this, the clamors of the prejudiced and the saifish interests of individuals, must be entirely subordinated to the great work before the Conven-

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

The Centennial. PHILADELPHIA, June 12, '76.

To the Editor of the News: I send you a short letter from this place, to give your readers who intend to visit the Centennial, some information which, I trust, will prove interesting to the uninitiated. First, let me advisa every one who can possibly spare the time to come by all meaus. The exhibition is an immense success, and far surpasses in attractiveness even our great World's Fair of Paris in 1867. All may come with the brightest anticipations and without fear of being disappointed. The limits of this letter of course prevent my entering into anything like details, but take my word for it, such a wonderful display has never been seen before, and I shall always congratulate myself for having decided to stop here a few days. The fare at the hotels is very reasonable indeed. The Continental charges $4.50 a day, and has accommodations unsurpassed in this country. Girard House charges only $350, and I would advise every one to stop there. The table is as richly spread as at the St. Nicholas of New York, and as usual in all first-class hotels, the dining room is open from 7 in the morning till 12 at night. The best and most economical plan for visitors to the Centennial grounds is to breakfast at the hotel, then take the street cars of which there are enough to accommodate any number of passengers, (the fare being but seven cents) and which stops at the main entrance of the exhibition. Once inside of the grounds, a steam rail road for a very small sum carries the visitors around all the buildings, thus enabling them to take a very fair survey of the whole, and to decide to what portion of the mammoth show they will mostly give their attention There are several first-class restaurants inside the grounds where re-freshments can be obtained at very low prices, and after a day scent in the most delightful manner, the same street cars will be in waiting and convey the visitors back to their hotel in time for dinner. Several places of entertainment of the highest order are open every night and well patrouized. I shall mention only Sothern's Lord Dundreary, and the Kiralfy Brothers who have opened a theatre and summer parden of wonderful beauty. I shall not con-clude without advising our Southern friends by all means to devite a long time to the Art Gallery and its annexey, filled with admirable works

I will meet my Southern comrades in Philadelphia at the approaching reunion, trusting that this gathering of representative Northern and Southern soldiers may add another link to the chain of friendship, good-will, and reconciliation which should ever bind the patriotic citizen-soldiers of the two great sections firmly togeth er, and that th's meeting may prove to one and all that the soldiers of the North and the soldiers of the South are animated by the the one and same great motive-a thorough and complete reconciliation, with a mind directed solely to the happiness. peace, presperity, and glory of a united and common country. THE STATE CONVENTION.

VIEWS OF THE PRESS.

The Watchword.

Wilson Advance.] In the coming struggle success must be our watchword. The Goths and Vandals are thundering at our gates. They must be driven away. The party which has plundered and robbed North Carolina, which has attempted to degrade the white race to a social level with the African, and which is now plundering the general government is making a desperate effort to recapture this State and to hold its power at Washington. Our first object then, we repeat, vention, which convenes next week, should proceed in their deliberations with unclouded minds and disinterested bearts. They must go to work with a patriotic and firm determination to put forward such a ticket as will give us victory in November.

Wild Men.

[Fayetteville Gazette.] There will be wild men'at the Convention in Raleigh, but wild men should not be allowed to jeopardize the hopes of a great victory in Nov-ember by "buncombe" resolutions on finance and other questions. Above all, we hope the Democratic Convention next week will be characterized by perfect union and armony.

On the 27th instant the Democratic National Convention will assemble at St. Louis. It will be composed of seven hundred and thirty-eight members. Of the delegates two hundied and twenty-six will be from the Eastern States, two hundred and twelve from the Western States, two hundred and seventy-six from the Southern States, and twenty-four from the Pacific. Under the two-thirds rule four hundred and ninety-the states will be recessive to a nomtwo votes will be necessary to a nomination. Each State sends two delegates for each member of the House and Senate of the United States. Colorado is included in this calculaINCINNATI.

tes and Opinions

ine delegation is the strongest one sent to a National Convention. All for Blaine. Conkling and Hayes it is thought would best represent the wis less of the E stand the West. Their's is the favorite ticket in New York. It is believed that Morton's forces will break first, and when this break occurs Mr. Conkling's friends expect a heavy accession to their vote.

As to Blaine, the most general impression is that in the begining he will be formidable, and that if he breaks the new men will go generally to Bris ow, those of the Middle States for Conkling and the Southern Blaine men to Morton.

In an interview at Washington Blame said there was no truth in the statement made that he was going to make amicable arrangements with Senator Conkling, in the interests of the republican party, with the understanding that he should have the nomination for the Presidency next time,

New York Heraid: The friends of Mr. Blaine still claim that be can obtain the nomination at Cincinnati. But suppose he should get it; he would only be like the man who won a stove at an Irish raffle and found that there was fire in it, and that it was too hot to carry away. *

An army is not apt to follow a leader who is so badly wounded that he has not strength enough to creep off the field. The place of Blaine, if he has any in the party, will be in the invalid corps.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Southern Republican delegates are growing in favor of Conkling.

The Illinois Democratic delegates will go instructed to vote for Tilden. There is forming a combination to secure for Bristow the Democratic nomination, if he fails to get the Republican, and run him as a compromise man-a second Greeley. New York Herald: If Mr. Blaine should be nominated for the Presidency he would be defeated by as large a majority as was cast against Greeley. Even if the St. Louis people were to nominate Bell Allen for President and Ben Hill for Vice President against him they would carry the country We can stand an inflationist and a sound, honest rebel, but we cannot stand the chief of a gang of scoundrels like this Pacific Railway crowd

Now comes a rumor that Mr. Mul lett, the favorite architect of the administration, is to be indicted for his complicity in some frauds in St. Louis. This is another of the especial friends of Grantin trouble. What a strange fatality has fallen upon the friends of the President? Babcock, Belknap, Shepherd and now Mulle t: and yet no one thinks that the President had any hand in the transactions for which these persons have fallen into trouble.

The "Housekeeper" of Our Health.

The liver is the great depurating or Set the great housekeeper or our health at work, and the fowl corruptions which gender in the blood and rot out, as it were, the machinery of life, are gradually expelled from the system. For this purpose Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, with small daily dose of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets are pre-eminently the articles needed. They cure every kind of humor from the worst scrofula to the common piniple, blotch or eruption. Great eating ulcers kindly heal under their curative influence. Virulent blood poisons that lurk in the system are by them robbed of their terrors, and by their preserving and somewhat protractive use the most tainted system may be completely renovated and built up anew. "Claude, a child about three years old, was greatly afflicted with sores on his legs and feet, so that he could not wear bis shoes and stockings. Had a great deal of trouble with him. Had tried many remedies ineffect-ually. At last we tried the Golden Medical Discovery, and in about three weeks he was entirely cured his sores were all healed, and health much improved.

Mr. H. Weil, of our town, ewns a mule which would not work, and said to be the worst kicker known. To day Prof. SAMPLE has made her perfectly gentle to work and drove her over town, as gentle any horse. We are satisfied he can break any horse, and his plans are so simple that any of his class can do the same.

The Kentucky delegation urge J. M. Harlem for permanent president, indicating a weakening for Bristow There is little hope of Blaine's recovering it. Michigan vote will be divided between Bristow and Hayes with a few scattering. A trade between the Hayes men cf Obio and the Vermont delegation is probable, based for Jewell for Vice-President. The latest puts the North Carolina delegation as follows: Blaine 12, Conkling 4, Bristow 2, Morton 2, Missouri is solid for Blaine, New Hanover is claimed solid for Blaine, Virginia is 17 substantially wrong. The article for Blaine, 3 for Morton and 2 for Conkling. Tennessee is eighteen for Morton, one for Bristow and one for Blaine. A canvass among the southern delegates shows few changes in favor of Conkling. His friends are coquetting with Hayes for second place and pursuing the same tactics with Logan's friends for second place. The friends of Blaine and Conkling are working with Pennsylvania for votes when Hartranft is withdrawn. It is stated the Bristow men from Massachusetts will go solid for Blaine when Bristow is out of tne ring. The Pennsylvania delegation met and resolved to stick to Hartranft. on the wharf.
